WEDNESDAY, : : APRIL 19, 1867. THE NEW GOVERNOR OF MISSIS-SIPPI-HIS APPOINTMENTS. Uniosa the daviltry concocted by Morton and his new ally, Senator Key, places Mississippi again in the hands of the carpetbag thieves, the State will soon be peaceful and prosperous, and her people happy. Governor Stone hamade a good beginning. His administration promises to be wise and eminently satisfactory. He has most assuredly been eminently successful in the appointments he has made for the various vacant offices. The APPEAL earnestly and zealously urged the appolatment of Colonel H. H. Chalmers as one of the supreme court judger, and, of course, rejoices at his appointment. Colonel Chaimers has a massive intellest. His ancestry on his mother's side was nurtured among the rugged, pure hills of Scotland, and bequeathed to persons. him the wealth and spleador of her Scotch gentus. The father of the new supreme court judge was once a United States repater from Mississippi, and it seems he has transmitted his great Chalmers, who has just been appauted supreme court judge. We predict for Colonel Chalmers an en- are that the May meeting of the Louisviable reputation as a Judge. He ville Jockey club will be even more suchas long been recognized as an able lawyer. Graceful in manners, commanding in appearance, impressive in diction, compact in sinewy argument, and familiar with the law, it is not surprising miliar with the law, it is not surprising that Colonel Chalmers has reached such eminence in his profession. He is preeminence in his profession. He is preeminently fitted for the position to which he has been sppointed, and which, we hope, he may long live to hold. The appointment of Hon. J. W. C. Watson, of Holly Springs, to the office of circuit judge for the second district is a high compliment to Governor Stone's Judgment. His decisions and opinions will be marked by great legal research, and as a judge his caresr will be able, just, pure and correct. We know nothing personally of the other appointments, but in speaking of them the Jackson Ctarion sensational article, charging Admiral says: "The senate has confirmed the Redgers, president of the Spalding courtappointment of Hon. Samuel Powell, of DeSoto, as circuit Judge of the third district. A better appointment could not have been made, and we are gratified to learn that it was confirmed by a unanimous vote. Zealous in the discharge of every duty devolved upon him, learned in his profession, the judicial ermine could not have fallen upon shoulders ples of his profession; a man of moderation but yet of firmness, with physical and mental capacity for any amount of labor. He comes to the tench at a pesind when the services of a man of his qualities are greatly needed in that august tribunal. In assuming the new duties devolved upon him, he carries with him the best wishes and the full confidence of the people of Mississi pi, who know him to be a thorough lawyer, an accomplished legislator and au booest man," We congratulate the people of Mississippi on these appointments. With such judges, and such a governor as J. M. Stone, Missis-

It condemns his vote, but indorses his speech. This is a strange ps alox. How can the Tribune tale Ex Governor Hunt, several business men from Chicago, a number of gentleis us with the APPEAL in condemning Senator Key's vote? It is true the Ar-PEAL condemned the speech in support of the vote which the Tribune dare not ind rse. The pride and the manhood of the south was humiliated by Senator by all unsurpassed.
